

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, February 3. 1768.

London, February 3.

Yesterday arriv'd the Mail from Holland of Tuesday last.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Feb. 7.

Milan, Jan. 22.

WE have a Report here, that a Regiment of Saxe-Gothans is recall'd from Italy to serve on the upper Rhine. The Prussian Troops continue in their Quarters in the Country of Piacenza. Recruits for the Imperial Troops that are in Italy, arrive daily in the Bressan. 'Tis rumour'd that all the Places of Tuscany belonging to the Crown of Spain, have own'd King Charles for their Sovereign; and that Cagliari the Capital of Sardinia has done the like: But the last Advices from Genoa making no mention of this, we suspend our Belief of it. Those Advices from Genoa import only, that they had had no News from the Fleet of Men of War and Transports that Sail'd from Vado the 1st Instant: But that the Falcon an English Frigate arriv'd the 11th in 14 Days from Barcelona, having on board 2 Couriers, one for Vienna the other for Turin. General Erle, and several other Officers came from Catalonia in this Frigate, and took Post from Genoa to go to Holland and so over to England.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Feb. 7.

Neuremberg, Jan. 31. The Officers of the Danish Troops in Bavaria, most of whom are now at Ratibon, have given Direction for their Field Equipage to be got ready for them by the Month of March; being inform'd that 'tis agreed between the Emperour and the King of Denmark, that their Regiments shall serve the next Campaign either in Hungary or on the Rhine, as his Imperial Majesty shall judge most expedient.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Feb. 7.

Bruchsal, Jan. 31. Some Troops are sent to General de la Tour, for the greater Security of the Forest-Towns: The Garrison of Fribourg is reinford'd anew with 150 Horse of the Regiment of Mercy and a like Number of the Regiment of Horse of Lobkowitz [both which Regiments belong to the Emperour,] and with 150 Hussars; so that the Garrison consists at present of 8 Battalions, besides some detach'd Horse. Since the French have been in Motion in Alsace, a great Number of their Men have deserted, and 6 Deferters which came hither to Day report, that the Forces drawn out of their Quarters by the Marshal de Villars continue between Hunningen and Befort; some Regiments of Horse excepted, which are return'd into their Quarters. Their Design against Fribourg having miscarry'd, they now threaten to make some attempt upon Constance, if the Weather favour them: We have an Account from Strasbourg, that the French are making great Preparations there for opening the Campaign early: Their Magazines are already so well stor'd, that with them they can subsist an Army of 40000 Men, They have provided Materials for laying a Bridge over the Rhine at Fort Louis; and all Advices agree that they will undertake some Enterprize before the Allies put themselves into a Condition to make Head against them; in order to which their Officers have Order to compleat their Troops and Companies by the End of March, on the Penalty of being Cashier'd.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Feb. 7.

Francfort, Feb. 1. Two Days ago Count Gallas the Emperour's Envoy arriv'd here, and Yesterday proceeded on his Journey to Holland in order to pass over to England. The French having been disappointed in their Design against Fribourg, by possessing themselves of which they propos'd to lay all Swabia open to their Ravages, most of their Troops that march'd up towards Hunningen are returning into their Quarters. In the mean while, Care is taken for the Forces of the Empire that have the Guard of the New Lines and of Philipsbourg and Landau, to be so well prepar'd for Defence, that we are under no apprehension of their being Surpriz'd, and those Places are well supply'd with Provisions and Warlike Stores. Heidelberg and other Places of the Palatinate have agreed with the Enemy on Contributions.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Feb. 4.

Paris, Feb. 4. Letters from Strasbourg of the 24th of last Month gave an Account, that the Marquis de Perri being inform'd the Enemy were sending up from Mentz a great Convoy of Provisions and Ammunition, for their Magazines in Philipsbourg, detach'd 2 Captains of Hussars with 60 Hussars to attack that Convoy. The Captain having march'd 25 Leagues, found the Convoy between Worms and Mentz, and surprizing it in the Night, made himself Master of it. It consisted of 5 Bks drawn by 25 Horses each, and 10 Boats drawn by 6 Horses each. He burnt the Boats with all their Lading, consisting of 150000 Weight of Powder, 7000 Sacks of Meal, a great Quantity of Oats and of Ammunition of all sorts. He caus'd the Horses to be Hamstring'd, some excepted which he loaded with Oats; and then return'd through the Enemy's Quarters, without losing one Man.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Feb. 7.

Ciechanowo, Jan. 15. The Army of the King of Sweden having pass'd the Vistula the 9th and 10th Instant over the Ice, advanc'd Yesterday to this Place which is 15 Leagues from the Vistula. 'Tis not doubted he will proceed forward, to attack the Muscovites in Lithuania. His Walachians have beaten some of their Parties, and advancing within 6 Leagues of Lublin defeated a detachment of 1000 Men of the Army of the Crown, killing above 100 on the Spot, taking 8 Prisoners with 3 Standards and 2 Pair of Kettle Drums, and putting the rest to Flight. The Prisoners they took report, that 2000 Men of the same Army who were not far from the said Detachment, betook themselves to Flight as soon as they heard of the Defeat of their Companions.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Feb. 7.

Hamburg, Feb. 3. Letters from Poland tell us, that the City of Thorn had been oblig'd to pay 5000 Rixdollars for Contributions to King Stanislaus, who had likewise demanded 100000 Rixdollars of the Nobility of Prussia. 'Tis said the Town of Pultowsk was laid in Ruins by the Muscovites, and that they had burnt several other Places. The Czar is expected back in his Army in Lithuania by the middle of this Month; in the mean while that Army are disorderly in that Dutchy: They have Plunder'd the Town of Kalish twice.

Hague, Feb. 7.

'By the Return of the Courier, which the Imperial Minister dispatch'd to Vienna after the Conference held there the 30th of last Month about Succouring effectually King Charles III, the final Resolutions of the Imperial Court on that Subject, and particularly touching the sending Prince Eugene to Command in Catalonia, are expected. The Prussian Minister continues to insist on the recalling his Master's Troops from from Italy to serve on the Rhine, where he says General Arnein is appointed to command them: The Envoy of Savoy bestirs himself to prevent this, representing that it would be in the highest Degree prejudicial to the common Cause. Some are of Opinion that the Prussian Minister will not persist absolutely in this Matter, but will recede if he can obtain from the States certain Terms which the King his Master is very desirous of. One of the Principal is, That their High Mightinesses consent to withdraw their Troops Garrison'd in Meurs: Which there is little Reason to think they will do. Letters from Switzerland advise, that the Protestant Cantons had retir'd from the Diet held at Baden, after having made a Declaration that they will support the People of Neuchâtel and Valangin: And they have resolv'd to send a Deputation to the Court of France on that Subject. General Thungen has by a Letter acquainted an Elector of Germany with the Particulars of the Marshal de Villars's Intrigue to get Possession of Fribourg in the Brisgaw. The Main of the Story is this: The Marshal found a Way to make an Offer to a Swiss Officer in the Castle of Fribourg, of 100000 Livres if he would open a Gate to him some Night. The Officer told the Governor what had been offer'd him, and the Governor acquainted General Thungen with it by an Express. That General gave Direction that the Swiss Officer should seemingly comply with the Marshal de Villars's Proposal; and in short, that Officer so manag'd the Matter, that the Marshal sent him a Note under his own Hand, obliging himself to pay him the foresaid Sum: Then the Night and Hour were fix'd for the Execution of the Design: And against the Time, the Governor made fit Preparations to receive the Enemy, and caus'd the Cannon on the Ramparts to be loaded with Crutidge-Shot to salute the Marshal on his Approach: But he having secret Intimation of this Counterplot, did not appear. The Note under the Hand of the Marshal de Villars is preserv'd.
